

The wi do not call list has greatly improved our quality of life in our home. We feel it is important to spent quality family time together in the evenings and it was virtually impossible with the phone ringing off the hook each night with UNWANTED solitations. We make a point of NOT supporting any business that contacted us via phone...if we want a service we will call them...do not call us!

We certainly hope the WI Do Not Call List stays in tact.